FOUR EVENING SERVICES LAST SUNDAY

Departing from the usual custom of having two chapel services on Sunday evenings, the student body was divided into four divisions and as many services were held at the same hour.

The College students assembled in the Faculty Room in Lincoln Hall and Dr. R. D. Hutchins preached there. The normal students gathered in the Upper Chapel and Dr. J. W. Haine delivered the sermon. Main Chapel was the meeting place for the Academy and Foundation Students and Mr. F. F. Davidson, of Boston, addressed them. The Vocational students met in the Vocational Chapel and listened to a discourse by Rev. Wm. E. Rix.

The emphasis in all these meetings was laid upon seeking a definite religious experience and enlisting in the service of Christ. The purpose of these meetings is to continue the work begun in the revival.

ANTI-TOBACCO LEAGUE AND THE MOUNTAIN VOLUNTEER BAND

The Anti-Tobacco League and the Mountain Volunteer Band met in conjunction, Sunday afternoon in the Parish House. The exchange of ideas was very beneficial to both organizations.

The Mountain Volunteer Band was represented by Miss Elizabeth Johnson and Delbert Cook. The Anti-Tobacco League by Miss Lula Owens and Samuel Seagars. Miss Johnson's topic was "The Rural Home." She suggested new channels of opportunity for improving the home. Her humor and practical illustrations held the interest of the audience in a most unusual way. Delbert Cook's discussion of the rural school gave an insight into the unfavorable conditions under which so many of our country schools are conducted. He also pointed out how these conditions could be bettered.

The audience next enjoyed a duet by Miss Blanche Osborne and Lloyd Rackley. Miss Lula Owens discussed the subject, "How to Combat Tobacco." Among other methods mentioned, was the "Good Habits Club," an organization of girls which is rapidly spreading over the country, the members of which pledge themselves that they will decline the attentions of any young man who drinks or uses tobacco or indulges in any form of profanity. Samuel Seagars concluded the program with his able speech on "Tobacco and Educational Institutions." This is a very important subject and was presented in a convincing manner.

The next meeting of the League will be held in the Parish House, Sunday afternoon, March 28, at 3:30 o'clock. A splendid program is anticipated. Everyone is invited to attend and enjoy these meetings.

STUDENT VOLUNTEERS ORGANIZE

The Student Volunteer Movement for Foreign Missions was organized March 7, with an attendance of twenty-two members who have expressed their desire to become vitally interested in this movement.

It isn't necessary that one should be a candidate for the Foreign Field as a missionary in order to be a member. We desire to have young men and women who are earnestly interested to know the field and get others at home to consider those who labor in the harvest fields abroad.

The organization is now under way and by the grace of God we will labor to know what the Master will have us to do for our life work. We trust and pray that every member will do his or her utmost in the furtherance of this organization here at Berea College.

The following officers were chosen by election: John Miller, College Department, President; Fleming Griffith, Vice President; Miss Catherine Haley, College, Corresponding Secretary; Miss Virginia Engle, College, Secretary; Harold H. Hackett, Treasurer.

Announcements will be made from time to time when and where this organization will meet. Our next meeting will be in the Faculty Room, Lincoln Hall, Sunday March 21, at 4:00 p. m.

Y. M. C. A. MEETING

The Y. M. C. A. had a very good meeting in the Main Chapel Sunday evening at 6:15 p. m., despite the fact that it is not our usual place for meeting.

One of the delegates to the Danville Convention, Eugene Van Scoyk, College Department, gave us a partial report of that Convention. His report was confined to the messages brought us by Dr. Weatherford, who was one of the principal speakers at the convention.

Several other delegates were present in the meeting and gave a few remarks on the convention.

As usual, Berea had the largest delegation at the State Convention, numbering about fifty, including students and faculty.

We have noticed that very few faculty members of any department attend our Sunday evening meetings. The Y. M. C. A. fellows would like to know what explanation the faculty can give. [Amen! We have wondered about that too, and all other religious meetings, including Sunday morning church service.—Editor.]

Y. W. C. A. MEETING

Ladies Hall and Kentucky Hall branches of the Y. W. C. A. met in a joint meeting in Upper Chapel Sunday evening, March 14. Prof. Vogel was our leader. His topic was "A Word to Women," by Paul, found in I Corinthians, 14:34; "Let your women keep silent in the churches; for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the law." Paul, in writing this letter to the people of Corinth, knew that the women were not fitted to speak. He did not mean that all women were unfitted, because the Bible gives us instances of women who were fitted to speak. Prof. Vogel gave as an illustration "the woman at the well," who, having talked with Jesus, went back to the city telling her friends and the people of the town she had found Jesus.

He urged that we fit ourselves so that we may carry the message to the people across the seas, to Japan with its laws allowing its women and children to work such long hours; of China and of India with its 400,000 outcast widows under the age of fifteen. Of our own country where are needed women fitted to speak to the Indians and to help the colored people. Also to help the Cubans, Mexicans and the people of Alaska. It is only since Christianity has come into the world that women have been recognized and set free.

We hope the Y. W. girls caught the spirit of Prof. Vogel's message and will make a greater effort to fit themselves for a life of service.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR

The meeting in the Christian Endeavor last Sunday was an unusually good one. The leaders were Misses Daisy Bibbey and Mattie Strunk. The topic was "Patience and Its Rewards." An interesting feature of the meeting was the many examples that were related by the members, in which patience had meant success or lack of patience had meant failure. One of the best things that can be said about our Christian Endeavor is the fact that there we hear experiences related which touch directly on our everyday lives.

The President and Secretary are at work compiling and rearranging the roll of Active and Associate members. From the list of Active members will be selected those who are to attend State Convention soon to be held at Paris, Ky. Due to the fact that our Christian Endeavor has a large enrollment it is expected that a large delegation will be sent to this Convention. With the probable exception of Mr. Christopher's Expert Class, these Conventions are the best training that our C. E. members can possibly get.

Mr. Little, our Christian Endeavor All-South Secretary, was in Berea last Friday and gave an inspiring and enthusiastic address to the C. E. members Vesper Hour Friday night. During his talk he yelled out "Come On," the words used by Dr. Clark the founder of Christian Endeavor, and the C. E. members yelled back "Let's Go." He gave great encouragement to our C. E. workers.

The meeting next Sunday night will be led by Vernon Wilson and Miss Ora Garden. The topic will be "Every-day Courtesies." Come out and enjoy a profitable and interesting meeting in our Christian Endeavor.

CAPS AND GOWNS

The Seniors of the College were recognized in the Main Chapel last Saturday morning. After a few brief remarks by President Frost, congratulating them on their achievements and stating the reasons for wearing cap and gown, the Seniors retired and returned to the room in full regalia.

The following are the names of the class:

UTILE DULCE LITERARY SOCIETY

The Utile Dulce program Saturday evening, March 13, was an especially interesting and well prepared one. It is the purpose of Utile Dulce to develop in the members the art of Literature and its presentation, also to discuss the topics upon which we need to think, and those that will make us well prepared to take our place as good citizens after leaving school.

The following program was presented:

Reconstruction in Europe
..... Verna Engle
Government Regulation of Prices
..... Anna Bagwell
The United States as Viewed by Foreign Countries,
..... Grace Hoagland

Debate—Resolved: That the Federal Government Should Have Complete Ownership of Railroads.
Affirmative: Ethel Kiser, Jessie Bowers; Negative: Lou McDaniel, Jane Reese. After which the question was open for discussion into which the whole society entered with enthusiasm.

SOMEWHAT THEOLOGICAL

Will we know one another in heaven? We don't know, but we wonder if our acquaintances who pass us on the street without speaking to us will recognize us up there.

What is the difference between orthodoxy and heterodoxy? (Ortho means straight or right; deko, I think; hetero, other.) "Orthodoxy is my doxy; heterodoxy is the other fellow's doxy."

Normal Department

All the Normal literary societies met Saturday evening at the regular time.

Mr. Social Committee Chairman!

You need a Live, Snappy Orchestra to make your entertainment a success. The Berea Academy Orchestra can do it.

"Music Worth While"

HOWARD E. HALL, Director

College Postoffice, Box 643

The Juniors of the Normal department have organized their class and have elected officers. They will give their class social next Monday evening. The class is very enthusiastic over their plans for the coming term.

Miss Artie Dye is now in the hospital with tonsillitis, but is much better.

DEPARTMENT SOCIAL

A social was given at Dixie Cottage March 16, from seven till nine. Everyone enjoyed the evening to the highest degree. During the first hour lively games were played which kept up a continual laughter. During the last hour refreshments were served, which consisted of ice cream, pie, cocoa and coffee.

The following girls and boys were present, arranged in partners: Mary Hardin, Elmer Mullins; Jewell Pruitt, C. E. Horton; Dora Delk, Harver Clarkson; Vola Petry, Delmer Coyle; Ella Reed, Carl Huntley; Malta Reed, Setha White; Mary Hensley, Denver Ambersy; Lula Daniels, McCoy Franklin; Mary Fee, Chester Morris; Bettie Miller, Frank Smithers; Ethel Barna, Millard Shepherd; Evelyn Clarke, David Francis; Ethel Clarke, Roy Combs; Iva Piersall, Homer Gabeheart; Annis White, James Congleton; Vernie Fee, Harlin White; Miss Fox; Rebecca Allen.

Everybody reports an enjoyable evening.

NORMAL WINS CHAMPIONSHIP

The final game of the basketball championship series was played between the Normal and College teams Monday afternoon. These two teams have been well matched all the season; so the great crowd who came out to see the final contest expected an exciting game, and they were not disappointed. It was a thriller from start to finish, although Normal maintained the lead all the way, the score at the end of the first half was 8 to 3 in favor of Normal, and the ultimate tabulation showed Normal the victors by the count of 21 to 7.

Enthusiasm ran high on both sides until the fight was so nearly decided that the gloom of defeat hovered over College and the Normal enthusiasm expanded to such rapture as only a championship can produce.

The figures below may be of some interest.

The Decisive Game
Normal—Richards (11) f.; Morris (2) f.; Durham (4) e.; Huntley (2) g.; Whicker (2) g.; Truitt (0) e.
Total 21.

College—Sanders (1) f.; Fields (0) f.; Bicknell (2) e.; Johnson (4) g.; R. VanScoyk (0) g.; McCabe (0) f.
Total 7.

Truitt replaced Durham near the close of the game, and McCabe replaced Fields.

MISS RAYMOND ENTERTAINS

Wednesday evening, March 10, Miss Dorothy Raymond very delightfully entertained at her home in Berea the Misses Emma Mierow, Ruth Ginter, Era Gossett and Lillian Roetger. A delicious dinner was served in honor of the birthdays of Miss Raymond and Miss Mierow. Miss Ruth Raymond very skillfully entertained the guests with music while the two honored young ladies were receiving and enjoying their gifts. A delightful evening was spent by all, after which the guests adjourned to the chapel in order to hear the wonderful lecture of Dr. Grenfell, of Labrador. All heartily wished these two young ladies many more such happy occasions.

ACADEMY FOOTBALL BANQUET

The Academy football champions held their annual banquet Monday evening, March 15, in the Wright House. Each boy brought his young lady friend and had a jolly time from 6:00 till 7:30. The dining room was resplendent with decorations. Professor Shutt, our football coach, said grace. Then all fell to and carried out a course of action which everybody enjoys; namely, eating. Throughout the entire meal our heroes were entertained with choice selections rendered by the Academy Orchestra. One of the fellows was overheard to remark that he was in the "seventh heaven" of delight when such a feast was set before him. But that he was in the eighth when he could sit near such a fair young maiden, and he didn't think it was fair to give him both at once for he couldn't enjoy them to the utmost.

Miss Strunk, Miss Secor, Miss Strong, Dean Matheny, Professor Peck, and Professor Whitaker acted as waiters. Professor Whitaker especially was admired by all the ladies because he looked so cute in his white apron with its frills 'n everything.

The food, prepared by the domestic science girls under Miss Strunk, was excellent. These girls deserve the highest praise for their industry and skill. The menu was as follows:

Vegetable Soup and Crackers.
Coffee.
Chicken and Dressing.
Tomatoes (Scalloped).
Stuffed Potatoes (Pickles).
Fruit Salad.
Biscuit.
Coconut Pie.

Professor Shutt presided as toastmaster. Everett Curry gave an appropriate toast to the ladies. Captain Neal then gave a toast to the faculty, who were the hosts. After the banquet the boys walked over to James Hall with their girl friends who gave them three hearty cheers, and thus came "the end of a perfect day."

Those present were: Misses Ola Bowman, Lela Bowman, Mattie Perry, Julia McCoy, Malvin Dalton, Helen James, Blanche Osborne, Dean Owens, Frances Barr, Myrtle Sharpe, Isabelle Bowen, Bess Daniels, Violet Franklin, Lenna Witt, Leah Stevens, Beatrice Wilson, Dell Fowler, Bernice Phillips, Lillian Roetger, Mrs. C. N. Shutt; Messrs. Clyde Lewis, Conrad Bates, Bates Henderson, Taylor Harlowe, Millard Shepherd, Thomas Robertson, Paul Bicknell, Fred Nickels, Sidney Neal, Austin Wilder, Beckham Robertson, Clyde Tudor, Walter Coop, Austin Lynn, Oliver Stegner, Durrell Eastley, Frank Vest, Clifton Henderson, C. N. Shutt, and Everett Curry.

ADELPHIC SOCIETY WINS

The Adelphe and the Sigma Tau Literary Societies met in debate in Main Chapel on Saturday night, March 13th; and the Adelphe boys succeeded in convincing two of the judges to make their decisions in their favor.

Dean F. E. Matheny, of the Academy, presided.

The question debated was, "Resolved: That the United States, within the next twelve months, should grant the Philippine Islands their independence, on condition that the United States assume a protectorate over the Islands."

The Adelphe debaters, contending for the affirmative, were R. O. Garden, W. E. Bibbey, R. M. Rogers, and C. E. Shell. The Sigma Tau Society was represented by Raymond Dingus, Beckham Newkirk, E. J. Wells, and Levi Brooks who upheld the negative.

All the speakers acquitted themselves in a worthy manner and the question was ably discussed. The debate as a whole was equal to the one a few weeks ago between the other Academy societies; and a hot battle is expected when the winners in the two debates, Pi Sigmas and the Adelphe meet on the platform in a few weeks.

MRS. MATHENY ENTERTAINS

The attractive little home of Mrs. Matheny was open on Wednesday evening, March 10, to fifty guests. The guests were the girls of Mrs. Matheny's weaving class and each girl invited a young man friend. The hours between 6:30 and 9:00 o'clock passed very quickly, as the party was so well carried on. Three rooms were used, (as one would not accommodate the crowd), in which various games were played. Music was furnished by a victrola. About 8:00 o'clock was the most interesting time. It was then that the refreshments were served, which consisted of cocoa with marshmallow cream and wafers. Then the games were con-

Vocational Schools

Miss Bessie Partee returned from a week's visit to her home in Nashville, Tenn., Tuesday evening. The girls gave her a hearty welcome.

Miss Sallie Begley, of the Business department, left Thursday for Hazard, where she has accepted a position as stenographer. Miss Sallie is a very efficient young lady and will doubtless win the success she so much deserves.

Professor Livengood, who has been convalescing from an operation for appendicitis, returned to his classes Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Spence entertained the married men among the Federal Board students and their wives on Saturday evening at their home on Jackson street. Refreshments were served and games were played, and a good time was enjoyed by all. The remainder of Mr. Spence's class will be entertained later.

Miss Inez Swan, a popular senior of the Home Science department, left Tuesday evening for a short visit to her parents at Fairmount, Ga.

Oliver Carriethers left in the early part of the week for Stearns, Ky., where he has accepted a position as manager of a large farm. Mr. Carriethers was a senior of the Agricultural department, and Secretary of the Vocational Y. M. C. A. All members extend heartiest congratulations and best wishes for his success.

GIBRALTAR-VESTALIA MEETING

Gibraltar and Vestalia Societies held a joint meeting in Upper Chapel, Saturday evening, March 13. The meeting was opened with a prayer by Mrs. Blount, followed by a song, "Loyalty to Christ."

Harlan Franklin was first on the program and gave a fine talk on "The Victory of War in Defeat." Miss Mary Sharp read to us the items in the Vestalia Choker. She was followed by Hiram Pignon, who told us "Why Our Boys Should Study Carpentry." We next enjoyed a debate on "Resolved: That it is not necessary to have two years of Domestic Science training to be a successful housewife." O. L. Haynes and Oscar Corn took the affirmative; Eunice Darr and Clara Terrill the negative. The negative won.

We enjoyed music by Eulala Lewis and Herbert Waddie and by Messrs. Franklin and Kirk. J. M. Pierce next read the Gibraltar Gazette news. The last number on the program was a quartette by Inez Swann, Minnie Klar, Herbert Waddie and Everett Huff. The program was much enjoyed by all. One felt that the evening was well spent.

Foundation School

The Foundation teachers are enjoying a box of good things to eat from Mrs. Elta Moore Washburn, of Chicago. Mrs. Washburn is still keeping up her old reputation, that of being good to her friends.

Nick Clark, of Greasy Creek, spent a few days in Berea this week. He brought a little nephew, Willie Parker, to put in the Training School. Willie's mother died a week ago at Kingston, W. Va. His uncle was a student in Berea formerly. He arranged with Mrs. Edwards to keep the boy.

DEATH OF ERNEST HURST

Miss Fessenden received a message Monday announcing the death of Ernest Hurst, a graduate of last year's Foundation class. He died at his home, in Middlesboro, Ky., after a long illness. Ernest spent several years in Berea and leaves a host of friends who are made sad by his death. Miss Fessenden attended the funeral in Middlesboro on Tuesday.

Miss Matheny had several beautiful samples of the weaving. The boys were not only interested in looking at them, but were very anxious to know who made them. Nine o'clock was the sad time when the jolly crowd had to part. A wonderful time was enjoyed by all, and everyone that was present wishes to express their appreciation to Mrs. Matheny and Miss Stella Anderson, the assistant weaving instructor.

TRUTHFULNESS

"What is the reputation of the defendant for veracity?" asked the lawyer. "Is he regarded as a man who tells the truth?" "Well, I can't say as he don't never tell the truth," answered Hiram, "but I do know if he wanted his hogs to come to their feed, he'd have to get somebody else to call them."—Epworth Herald.
